"The Windsor Revolver Club defeated the Mercer & Dunbar Armored Car Service in their first match of the Metropolitan Revolver League fired at the Newington American Legion range. (Building burned down the next week.) The newly organized M & D team firing in its first shoulder-to-shoulder match - suffered somewhat from buck fever..."

Score: WINDSOR 1160 (High Score - A. Coe 238)
M & D 799

LARGE TIME & RAPID TYPE TARGET FOR SLOW FIRE

NOTES FROM NEWS CLIPPINGS:

"The Capitol City Club boys have decided that more heat in their range room might improve scores, the thought being suggested by shooting on the delightful Phoenix Bank range."

"The big upset in the Met. Rev. League was the two matches that the Colt team lost, one to Windsor by 5 points, and the other to the Telephone team. Lack of practice, say some folks, but in checking over past records, we find that the Colt team have stayed within 25 points between their highest and lowest scores all season. Looks as if the other teams must have been improving."

MARCH 28, 1939 - FIRST METROPOLITAN LEAGUE BANQUET

Held at the Colts Memorial Building on Wyllys Street, Hartford

"As everyone expected when the season opened, the team of the Hartford Revolver & Rifle Club finished tops, and wins first leg upon the very handsome trophy cup presented to the Met. League by the officers of the Colt's Patent Fire Arms Mfg. Co."

"Shooters from the Phoenix Bank & Trust Co. brought their team through in second place, in spite of the loss of some of their best marksmen during the season, and thereby won the first leg on the fine trophy offered by the Tracy, Robinson and Williams Co."

"Shooters of the Colt's team captured third place in the League and thereby the first leg on the fine trophy cup donated by Clapp & Treat, Inc. This was a tight race with the S.N.E.T. only one match behind Colt's at the finish."

"Averages of the clubs in the Met. League for the fourteen matches fired, and the High Individual average of each club, were as follow

Hartford R&R	1318.214	Napolen Berube	279.7
Phoenix Bank	1317.357	W. C. Poole, Jr.	276.0
Colt's Club	1297.357	John Hintlain	264.9
SNET Club	1286.285	Arthur Lauritsen	263.9
Capitol City	1273.642	Edward Lally	265.2
Windsor Club	1238.928	Adelbert Coe	258.1
Wethersfield	1213.214	Raymond Jesionowski	259.5
Mercer-Dunbar	1123.857	Robert Braman	243.2

"George B. Armstead, (Hartford Courant), one of the promoters of the league, pointed out that the idea of marksmanship goes back as far as civilization and was as much present in the ancient discus and javelin games, and even in the self-preservative stone-throwing of the caveman..."

"Former Alderman Thomas Fraser, a member of the Board of Education, humorously remarked that, after witnessing the accomplishments of the league, he was ready to advocate shooting as a part of the educational system."

"J. Henry Fitzgerald, ballistics expert at Colt's, in a brief talk, stated that an expert shooter must have control over every nerve and muscle in his body..."

"Leonard C. Davis, advertising manager at Colt's, congratulated the league upon an amazing first year."

AUG. 31, 1941 MEETING

"Edward Prouty, of the Windsor Revolver Club, was elected President of the Metropolitan Revolver League at its organizational meeting..

"At the meeting last week, it was voted to establish a new Board of Governors composed of one member of each club."

"It was also decided to shoot at the NRA type targets this season"

"NRA rules will be in effect with the exception of the League timing and unlimited entries in matches."
